(XXVIth YEAR.) THE (No. 1352.)

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 8, 1771.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 3.

NOT only Giurgewo, but alſo the City of Sinope, ſituated on the Black Sea, in Naolia, is taken by the Ruſſians, and Three Men of War upon the Stocks were burnt. The Iſland of Chios having refuſed to pay a Contribution of a Hundred Thouſand Piaſters, has been taken by the Ruſſians, in ſpite of all the Efforts of the Pacha of the Dardanelles, and the Captain Pacha.—Three Algerine Chebecks were burnt, and the other Ships ſent to its Aſſiſtance were diſperſed.

April 17. We are aſſured, that the preliminary Articles of the Peace between the Two belligerent Powers are ſigned; that the Porte hath entirely placed its Intereſts in this Matter in the Hands of his Pruſſian Majeſty; and that Ruſſia will approve of whatever ſhall be done for her by the Court of Vienna. God grant that this good News may be confirmed. In the mean Time the Preparations for War are continued with the ſame Activity as before.

WARSAW, April 20. According to an exact Liſt, the Plague has carried off, in this Kingdom, 245,000 Perſons, and happily has now ceaſed.

MADRID, May 2. Advices from Cadiz confirm, that the Engliſh have been diſlodged from St. David's Iſle by the Spaniards, which makes us apprehend new Troubles between the Two Nations.

VIENNA, May 15. For ſome Months paſt, Prince Galitzin, Ambaſſador from Ruſſia, has made known to our Court the double Deſire the Empreſs of Ruſſia had, that their Imperial Majeſties would employ their good Offices; 1ſt, That the Ruſſian Reſident ſhould be ſet at Liberty, after being conducted to the Ruſſian Frontiers; and Secondly, That the Mediation demanded for the Porte, "that the Emperor and the King of Pruſſia, ſetting aſide all the Formality of an open Mediation, ſhould uſe their good Offices jointly to bring about a juſt and equitable Peace." Their Imperial Majeſties, in Conſequence of the above Deſire, have ſent the neceſſary Inſtructions to their Reſident at Conſtantinople, and we are informed he has ſo far ſucceeded, that the Porte has conſented to M. Obreſkow's being conducted to the Frontiers with all the Honour due to his Rank, and we have the greateſt Reaſon to believe he is on his Way: And as to the Second Point, the Porte has given its full Conſent to it.

PARIS, May 24. The Court having ſent to the Princes of the Blood, to know if the Proteſt ſigned with their Seals was a Work which they avowed? They returned for Anſwer: "That it was not with "their Advice that a Proteſt was printed; that they "had delivered THEIR Proteſt, and that they abided "by the Sentiments therein contained."

LONDON,

May 7. We are aſſured by recent Letters in Town from Liſbon, that the Portugueſe Miniſtry, ſenſible of the Umbrage they have given our Court by the late ill Uſage of the Britiſh Traders to that Kingdom, have made ſome new Regulations in favour of the Engliſh; ſo that ſome capital Merchants, who were preparing to leave that Place, are now induced to ſtay, and make another Trial of the Portugueſe Fidelity.

May 12. Inceſſant (ſays a Correſpondent) are the Abuſes of Mr. Wilkes, on the Score of Character. Are the Miniſtry, his Opponents, of fair Character? If not, there is much precious Abuſe thrown away.

Wilkes, it is ſaid, anſwers Croſby's Addreſſes, and Horne thoſe to Oliver. All the Anſwers are in the Spirit of Liberty. Are not Wilkes and Horne equally Patriots?

May 16. Letters by the laſt Poſt from Bourdeaux mention, that upwards of Fifty Sail of Ships had been fitted out at that Port for the Newfoundland Fiſhery.

By Letters received from Adrianople, in Turkey, there is Advice, that on the 26th of March ſeveral ſevere Shocks of an Earthquake were felt there, which deſtroyed Part of the City and the Inhabitants were buried in the Ruins; that thoſe who remained alive eſcaped to the Fields, and pitched Tents to preſerve them from the Inclemency of the Weather, which was at that Time very rainy. At the Time it happened the River Mazara roſe conſiderably, and the Effects of the Earthquake were perceived many Leagues out at Sea, and even as far as Philippoli.

The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint Sir Ralph Payne, K. B. his Majeſty's Captain General and Governor in Chief in and over all his Majeſty's Leeward Caribbee-Iſlands in America, Chancellor, Vice-Admiral and Ordinary of the ſame.

May 17. A very great Houſe has ſtopped Payment at Hamburgh, to the Amount of 200,000 l. Sterling.

Letters from Oporto, by the laſt Mail, bring Advice, that an Edict is iſſued, importing, that if any Perſon preſumes even ſo much as to mention the King and Miniſtry, they ſhall be baniſhed from Portugal for ever.

The Turkiſh Army broke up their Camp, and quitted the Environs of Adrianople about the End of March, and are gone for Siliſtria; they have double the Number of Cannon with them they had in the laſt Campaign.

The granting a Noli Proſequi to ſtop the Proſecution of the Meſſenger, is a freſh Approbation of all the Proceedings of Parliament; the Attorney General, however, has no Power over civil Proceſſes; and as ſuch freſh Proſecutions are expected to iſſue in behalf of the Lord Mayor and Mr. Oliver, ſhould the Parliament then preſume to ſtop the Courſe of Law, the Conſequences may be fatal to the Conſtitution.

What great Errors (ſays a Correſpondent) are thoſe to fall into, who take Part for the whole? As for Example, would any one, when breathing the Air of St. James's, imagine, that either Reaſon, Truth or Juſtice, was to be found within the Walls of the City of London, but that the Inhabitants were all merely what they have been repreſented, the Scum of the Earth, and as ſuch properly deſpiſed: On the other Hand, there is ſcarcely a City or Borough in the Kingdom, where their Names are not hourly celebrated, and the only Conteſt is which ſhall firſt bear his Teſtimony to the Merits of the Three diſtinguiſhed Aldermen.

A celebrated female Hiſtorian, it is whiſpered, is now writing an Hiſtory of the Reign of our preſent Sovereign, in which it will appear, from incontrovertible Authority, that a great Perſonage who has been much calumniated, has always adviſed the moſt lenient Meaſures.

There was another Diſturbance on Saturday laſt among the Priſoners in the King's-Bench, when they deſtroyed upwards of Fifty Buts of Beer belonging to the Tap.

May 20. Letters from Sweden inform us, that in the different Dock-Yards of that Kingdom, 30 Ships of War, and Frigates, are building for the Service of France, conformable to one of the ſeparate Articles ſtipulated in the new Treaty of Subſidy concluded between thoſe Two Powers.

The following Promotions are now ſaid to be determined on, viz.

The Earl of Pembroke to be Ambaſſador to the Court of France.

The Earl of Harcourt, Secretary of State.

And Lord Rochford Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, in the Room of Lord Townſend, for whom the Maſter Generalſhip of the Ordinance is reſerved.

It is reported that an Action of 100,000 l. Damages, will be brought by the Lord Mayor, and Aldermen Wilkes and Oliver, againſt the Preſident of a certain Club.

May 22. Several Ships are fitting out in the Thames, for America, to bring home Timber for the Uſe of the Navy.

We hear it has been intimated to all the foreign Miniſters, that as both Houſes of Parliament have reſigned the Privilege of protecting their Servants in Caſes of Debt, their Excellencies are no longer to expect that Indulgence for their Domeſticks, but that every Individual of their Train, Secretary included, muſt, for the future, be open to the juſt Demands of their Creditors.

Advice is ſaid to be received by the Liſbon Mail, that his Moſt Faithful Majeſty is about to prohibit all commercial Intercourſe between his Subjects and thoſe of France.

A Negociation is ſaid to be now on Foot between the Courts of Verſailles and Madrid, for ceding the Iſland of Corſica to the latter.

Meaſures are already adopted, and will be put into Execution with all poſſible Speed, for avoiding the great Inconveniencies ariſing from the Want of Paper Currency in the Colonies.

It is confidently aſſerted, that ſome very ſtrong Efforts will be made the next Seſſion of Parliament, for introducing an American Repreſentation into the grand Council of the Nation.

May 24. A Council was held this Morning at the Secretary's Office, in Cleveland Row, ſaid to be on ſome Intelligence which has been received from France.

A Correſpondent informs us, that Preliminaries are ſigned between the Turks and Ruſſians, under the Mediation of the Courts of Vienna and Berlin: The Terms are ſaid to be as follow:

M. Obreſcow reſtored to Liberty.

The Crimea ceded to Ruſſia, with the free Navigation of the Black Sea.

Two Iſlands in the Archipelago, with free Paſſage through the Boſphorus and Propontis.

Bender and Moldavia to revert to the Porte.

Walachia, and the Turkiſh Part of Tranſylvania, with Belgrade, ceded to Auſtria.

Poland to be divided into Four Parts.

Poliſh Pruſſia, and Dantzick, to the King of Pruſſia.

The Country on the Frontiers of Hungary, to Auſtria.

Poliſh Ukrania to Ruſſia.

The great Duchy of Lithuania, and the reſt of Poland, to be erected into an independant Monarchy; but whether for the preſent Poſſeſſor of the Throne, or ſome more fortunate Prince, has not yet tranſpired.

May 27. A Nobleman, who lately wrote to Lord Bute on the Subject of his Return, informed his Lordſhip, that the publick Prints were again preparing to attack him, and that the People of England would never ſuffer him to live among them quietly. "I know that too well, my dear Friend, (replied the Earl in his ſucceeding Letter) but ſurely they can have no Objection to my dying quietly among them; I deſire no other Favour at their Hands; though I doubt not, when the Rage of Party has ſubſided, that they will be convinced I could have no Intereſt in being their intentional Enemy."

May 29. The Regiments of Swiſs and French Guards were reviewed the Seventh Inſtant, by the King, on the Plains of Sablone; but the Princes of the Blood, who ſigned the Proteſt, did not attend, and would not even ſuffer any Perſon who wore their Livery, to be preſent.

Letters from France mention a prodigious Scarcity of Proviſions in that Country, eſpecially in Picardy, where, for Want of proper and wholſome Food, a great Mortality now prevails amongſt the lower Sort of People.

Yeſterday the Right Hon. the Earl of Bute, ſet out with his Family from South-Audley-Street, for his Seat at Luton-Hoo, in Bedfordſhire.

It is aſſerted that the French Court, at the Inſtance of ſome great Perſons, has at laſt agreed to make a Compenſation to General Paoli, for the Eſtates which that General formerly poſſeſſed in the Iſland of Corſica, ſaid to be worth upwards of 30,000 l.

The laſt Accounts from Madagaſcar are, that the French Colony there ſeems to be in the moſt flouriſhing Condition, and that Spices of all Kinds grow to as great Perfection there as in any of the Dutch Settlements.

May 31. Letters from Paris of the 23th Inſtant mention, that ſeveral Hawkers have been lately taken into Cuſtody, for vending ſome Arrets, Remonſtrances, Letters of Parliament, Proteſts of the Princes of the Blood, &c. and committed to Priſon. The Informers on theſe Occaſions have been chiefly Eccleſiaſticks, who urge, that in ſerving the Police by ſuch Informations, they act agreeable to the Will of God.

The Report of Yeſterday at Jonathan's was, that every Thing is ſettled between the Turks and Ruſſians, and that the King of Poland is to abdicate in Favour of a Prince of Saxony.

June 3. The following are given out as the Terms of the Treaty of Peace, on the Eve of being concluded between Ruſſia and the Porte, under the Mediation of the Courts of Berlin and Vienna: Belgrade, and all the Forts on the Danube, to its Mouth, and Bender, to be ceded to Auſtria, as Barriers againſt the Ruſſians and Turks. The intermediate Countries between the Neiſter and Danube, to remain neutral, under their Princes and Warwodes. All the Coaſt of the Black Sea, with its Ports and Harbours, comprehending thoſe of the Crimea, ceded to Ruſſia. The Crim Tartars to become nominally independent. The Ruſſians not to have the free Navigation of the Boſphorous and Helleſpont, and to evacuate the Archipelago and its Iſles. The Throne of Poland to be declared vacant; and a free Election permitted, by withdrawing off all foreign Troops. The Candidates for the Poliſh Throne to be the Elector of Saxony, the preſent King, and an Arch-Duke. Should the Election not fall on the preſent King, he is to retain the Title of King, to which will be annexed the Duchy of Penin. The King of Pruſſia to cede his Part of Sileſia to Auſtria; and to receive Poliſh Pruſſia and Dantzick in Lieu of it, guaranteed by Auſtria.

We hear that a Fleet, conſiſting of the Guardſhips from Portſmouth, and the other Ports, are ordered to cruize for Six Weeks in the Bay of Biſcay.

The Ships of War, lately put out of Commiſſion with ſo much Haſte, are with equal Haſte to be put into Commiſſion again.

Orders are arrived at Portſmouth for the Marine Captains to go to the different Parts of the Kingdom to recruit.

A Gentleman at Hull, whoſe Veracity we can depend upon, aſſures us, that he ſaw a Letter laſt Week from Bombay, which mentions the Aurora Frigate to have been ſafe off that Place when the Letter was wrote.

June 5. This Morning, about Five o'Clock, the Queen was taken in Labour, and a Quarter before Six was ſafely delivered of a Prince. Her Majeſty and the young Prince are as well as can be expected. On this Occaſion the Flags were diſplayed and the Bells were ſet a ringing, in order to anounce the happy Event.

The Viceroyſhip of Ireland is ſaid now to lie between Lord Gower and Lord Weymouth; and 'tis ſaid there will be no Deputation of Lords Juſtices, as has been uſual in Ireland, during the Abſence of the Lord Lieutenant, but that the preſent Lord will be immediately ſucceeded by a reſident Viceroy.

June 6. It is ſaid that a certain great Perſonage is at length come to a Reſolution to diſmiſs from his Service all ſuch of his Servants as he finds are grown obnoxious to his People.

June 8. Sir Edward Hawke is ſaid to have declined the Acceptance of a Peerage.

PORTSMOUTH, May 12. Three Fleets are now ready for ſailing, Admiral Sir George Rodney for the West Indies, Admiral Montagu for Halifax, Commodore Byron for Newfoundland, Sir Peter Dennys will command a powerful Fleet in the Mediterranean: At Spithead 21 Ships of War.

DUBLIN, June 1. On Monday the 27th ult. a riotous Mob assembled, and entered the House of Mr. Peter Heverin, on Usher's Quay, Merchant, and took out Woollen Cloths to a considerable Amount, and burnt and destroyed the same; and on Wednesday the 29th, attacked the House of Mr. William Witherington, of Grafton-Street, Woollen-Draper, fired several Shot, and dangerously wounded a Gentleman belonging to his Family.

BOSTON, July 22.

Last Saturday a Ship arrived here from England, having on board a Number of Recruits for the 14th and 59th Regiments; the former quartered at Cattle-William, in this Harbour, and the latter at Halifax, in Nova-Scotia.

NEW-YORK, July 29.

Wednesday last his Excellency Lord Dunmore, set out in his Yacht, for Albany.—On his passing the Fort he was saluted with 15 Guns.

The following is an Extract of a Letter received last Week from a Gentleman in Pennsylvania, who is distinguished for an uniform Attention to the true Liberties of his Countrymen. The Reflections he makes must convince every sensible Person of the Necessity of the Measures lately pursued by that truly great Character which now presides over this Province.

"A Kind of internal War is carried on within the Bounds of this Province, which, if not speedily check'd, will have serious Consequences to us, and prove as dangerous as the Regulators of North-Carolina: I mean the Attempt of the Connecticut People, with a Set of lawless Banditti from our Frontier, to fix a Settlement at Wyoming, on the North Branch of Susquehannah.—There have been frequent Engagements between these People and ours, some Lives have been lost, and several Laws passed against them. We expect daily to hear of another Engagement, for they are besieging our People with a large Body.

"It is the Opinion of Folks in this Country, that, if some Method is not fallen upon of reducing these Frontier Rioters to a Submission to Law, that one general Chain will be formed of them throughout the whole Continent, as the Views and Conduct of them all are similar."

PHILADELPHIA, July 29.

Extract of a Letter from Lisbon, June 12.

"Two Packets arrived here Yesterday from England, but bring no very material News, only that Mr. Wilkes and Parson Horne have entered into a Paper War, where they lash one another very severely, and in very scurrilous Language.

"Yesterday an Express arrived at this Court from Paris, in Nine Days and a Half, giving an Account that a Civil War had broke out in France. As the Post from those Parts comes in the Day after To-morrow, we expect to hear the Particulars, and of bloody Work, the People being determined to sell their Privileges very dear."

ANNAPOLIS, August 9.

Arrived since our last, the Peace and Plenty, Smith, the Hope, Hooper, and the Hazard, New, all from London.—The Two former in Patuxent, and the latter at this Port.

 The Officer presents his Compliments to Mr. E——T——, and begs he will take Notice, that the following Errors in his Second Letter, (except waxed for coaxed) were committed, through the Hurry and Inadvertence of the Transcriber. In 5th Section, for "collected by the People" read "collected from the People."——In 6th Section; for "who is guilty," read "who are guilty."—In 7th Section, for "waxed and wheedled," read "coaxed and wheedled."—In 10th Section, for "When in your legislative," read "Whence in your legislative;" and an (?) instead of a (.) after put together——For "But these very Men," read "Yet these very Men"——For "there Lawyers," read these Lawyers"——In 11th Section, for "customary Mode of conniving at," read "customary Mode, connived at."

FIVE POUNDS REWARD.

July 30, 1771.

RAN away from the Coffee-House in Annapolis, an indented Servant Man, named OLIVER STEPHENS, about 23 Years of Age, 5 Feet 8 Inches high, wore his own Hair, light coloured Cloaths, and also carried some light coloured Jennet, which had been cut out, but not made up, away with him; he is very slender, and has a remarkable thin Face, is a Native of Ireland, as may be easily gathered from his Conversation, he plays tollerably on a Variety of musical Instruments, viz. The Violin, Clarinet, Guitar, German Flute, &c. Tho' not yet Nine Months in the Country, yet this is his Second Elopement; he has shewn great Ingratitude to mild and even genteel Treatment. 'Tis supposed he is either gone by Water to Philadelphia, or lies concealed in this Town. If any Person through Ignorance of the Law has harboured him, by securing him and giving immediate Notice thereof to Mrs. Howard, at the Coffee-House, he will not only avoid a Prosecution, but be handsomely rewarded. Five Pounds will be paid by the said Mrs. Howard, to the Person who apprehends said Oliver Stephens, if taken more than 10 Miles from Annapolis, or Three Pounds if nearer, and lodged in Jail, so that Mrs. Howard may have him.

Annapolis, July 23, 1771.

THE Subscriber takes this Method of acquainting his Friends and the Publick, that he intends to decline keeping Tavern August Court next, and returns his sincere Thanks for the Countenance and Encouragement he has hitherto met with; and as he much wishes to settle every Account before he quits the said Business, earnestly requests those who are indebted to him, to call and discharge their respective Balances; and all those who have Claims against him to bring them in, and they shall be punctually adjusted and paid. JAMES REITH.

FIVE POUNDS REWARD.

April 9, 1771.

RAN away from the Subscriber, living in Roxborough Township, Philadelphia County, on the 7th Instant, a Dutch Servant Lad, named Philip Lutts, about 18 Years of Age, about 5 Feet 5 Inches high, and grows fast, of a lean Visage, light brown short Hair, being lately cut, he is a little knock-kneed, flat-footed, speaks good English, but is awkward, and of a down bashful Look, has been in the Province between 4 and 5 Years, and served chief of the Time at the Cooper's and Miller's Business: Had on when he went off, a new blossom coloured Cloth Coat and Vest, a Pair of Leather Breeches, a Felt Hat, and a Check Shirt; and took with him, a blue flowered Flannel Vest, a Pair of blue Everlasting Breeches, a white Shirt, and had Two Pair of Stockings, with good Shoes. Whoever takes up the said Servant, and will convey him to the Work-House, in Philadelphia, or secure him in any Jail, so that I may get him again, shall have the above Reward, paid by

(3w) EDWARD MILNER.

N. B. He has since been seen near Joppa, in Baltimore County, Maryland, and it is thought will endeavour to get settled in some of the Mills in that Province.

Annapolis, July 24, 1771.

THE Subscriber has lately received Letters from England, informing him of sundry Books, on Painting, and a Number of Prints being sent him, but by what Ship, or to what Part of Virginia or Maryland they were sent, he is totally at a Loss to find out. Any Gentleman that may be in Possession of the Books, Prints, &c. and will send them to the Subscriber, or give him Information of them, shall be well rewarded for his Trouble, and receive the Thanks of his Very humble Servant,

CHARLES W. PEALE.

May 23, 1771.

STRAYED from the Subscriber on the 5th Inst. a dark sorrel Horse, about 13 Hands 3 Inches high, branded on the near Shoulder F W paces slow, trots and gallops, has a small Star in his Forehead, switch Tail, hanging Mane, and walked lame when he went away.
